

Do's and Don'ts for Duststorm/sandstorm

Do's:

- Listen to radio, watch TV or read newspapers for weather updates and warnings.
- One major protection strategy is to establish well-developed plant cover before the dust storms period. This can encourage a reduction in the wind speed in the layer next to the ground by forming effective buffer.

Don'ts:

- Avoid going out during high winds with duststorm.

[Source: National Disaster Management Authority]